From the Pastor

In 1985, I traveled to Israel. For me, it was a holy experience in the Holy Land. The breath of history alone makes the journey fascinating. As we walked over ancient ruins, I was struck by the centuries and millenniums of civilization I stood upon. At times the views were breath-taking; other times, I was mystified why this barren wasteland has been fought over through the centuries.

One of the disappointments was the endless church buildings built over the sites. Obviously, I don't dislike church architecture. However, I came to Israel to see where Jesus was born, where he grew up, and the place where the cross stood. Instead, there were churches built to commemorate the place, to honor that location with a consecrated structure. It took away an edge from my experience.

But there were many highlights. Some being the panoramic view of the walled city of Jerusalem that exploded before us as we approached the city; walking through the streets of the old city of Jerusalem, and gazing at the hills outside Bethlehem. I was able to take an unplanned and spontaneous tour into the excavations taking place under the temple compound where my dilating pupils allowed me to make out the shadowy outline of the ancient ruins, hidden from your typical pilgrim to the land.

The Jordan River was special, the Dead Sea interesting, the excavations of Masada fascinating, as well as the ruins of the ancient city of Jericho.

As exciting and invigorating as all of this was, what most impressed me was traveling to the rather pristine and quiet regions of the Sea of Galilee. The church buildings were few and the tourist stops less commercial. It was mostly undeveloped land surrounding this important body of water. It was there that I could picture Jesus walking along the shore, calling out to his disciples. I could imagine the storms at sea and Jesus walking out on the water. On the hillside, I could picture Jesus with five loaves of bread and two fish feeding a large gathering. I could picture Jesus sitting on the hillside with a farmer sowing seed in the background, while he shared the parable of the sower. It was there that I experienced the words of the song, "I walked today where Jesus walked." Some of the most precious and meaningful events of Jesus took place by that Sea. Jesus chose his disciples, calling them from their boats and nets to follow him. Jesus crossed the Sea from one side to the other for retreat. The Sea of Galilee was where I felt the closest to Jesus.

During the weeks of Lent, we'll be traveling with Jesus around and upon the Sea of Galilee. We'll walk together where Jesus walked. We'll share about his miracles and teaching. As we do so, we'll have the opportunity to draw closer to Jesus.

It starts with Ash Wednesday on March 6, where you can drop in for ashes and communion during the hours of 7:00 – 8:00 AM and 11:30 AM – 1:30 PM. The evening services of ashes and meditation will be at 7:30 PM.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Kurt

Through The Years

You may not be familiar with the name Carlton Young, but he stands out as one of the most important figures in Methodist musical history. He has been referred to as the most important person in Methodist music since Charles Wesley. If you look in the back of the United Methodist Hymnal under the Index of Composers, Arrangers, Authors, Translators, and Sources; Rev. Young's name appears forty-four times. A small sample of his work includes the harmonization of the hymns "On Eagle's Wings" (No. 143), "Morning has Broken" (No. 145), "Be Thou My Vision" (No. 451), and "Kum Ba Yah" (No. 494). He also wrote the music to "This is a Day of New Beginnings" (No. 383) and "O the Depth of Love Divine" (No. 627). He has composed Musical and Psalm Responses, Texts, and many other works in our hymnal.

Carlton Raymond Young is an Ohio native born in Hamilton, Ohio in 1926. He graduated from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music with a bachelor's degree in Music Education. He achieved a Bachelor of Sacred Theology from Boston University School of Theology. He has honorary doctorates from several universities. He also studied at Union Theological Seminary in New York City, as well as in Vienna, Austria, and Prague, Czech Republic.

Rev. Young is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church. He has served on the faculties of Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, the Scarritt Bennett Center in Nashville, Tennessee and was the emeritus professor of church music at the Chandler School of Theology, Emory University in Atlanta.

Rev. Young was the editor of the Methodist Hymnal in 1966 and the United Methodist Hymnal in 1989, the one in use today. He also wrote the Companion to the United Methodist Hymnal which includes historical background of text and tune for each hymn, tune changes over the years, and the theological basis for the texts of the hymns. He has also written many other books on hymns and Christian songs. He was the music director at the Uniting Conference of the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren Churches in 1968.

Rev. Young is married to Marjorie and they have four children: Robert, James, Carol, and Richard, and six grandchildren. They currently reside in Nashville, Tennessee.

At age 92, Rev. Carlton Young remains a treasure in the world of United Methodism and its music. I would like to thank John Hardy for providing me with an introduction to the work of this great man.

Change the World Day

Save the Date: Saturday, May 18, 2019

We have committed to packing 30,000 meals this year with Rise Against Hunger, so we will need all hands on deck for packing, as well as raising the funds ($10,000) to pay for these meals. Last year we packed 20,000 meals that were shipped to Zimbabwe.

Mobile Food Pantry

A Mobile Food Pantry is at the Life Brand Cowboy Church, 1289 Mentor Avenue, Painesville, Ohio (old armory at the corner of Fairgrounds Road and route 20/Mentor Avenue) on the first Saturday of each month. What is a Mobile Food Pantry? The Cleveland Food Bank delivers 10,000 pounds of food in boxes on pallets. This food is perishable (fresh vegetables, fruits, and baked goods.)

From 8 AM until finished, volunteers unload the pallets and sort and repackage the food into plastic bags. At 10 AM the food is distributed to the needy. Volunteers are needed from 8-10 AM for repackaging and from 10 AM -12 PM for distribution. If you know someone in need that cannot attend the distribution time, proxy shopping is available upon completion of a form (see Pastor Kurt).

If you have any questions or would like to help, contact Richard Carpenter at 440-257-0371.
