Second Sunday -

On this second Sunday of Advent, we remember that when Jesus came, it caused immense disruption and chaos. For Mary and Joseph who had to change their life plans, for Herod who feared a challenger to his throne, to the Jewish people who expected a different sort of Messiah. In Jesus, God was upending the old order of things and doing something new.

"For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work." – John 3:17 and 1 John 3:8

Today, we re-light the candle of expectant hope and light the candle of joy, rejoicing in the knowledge that God loved us enough to risk becoming a human being and enduring suffering and death for us.

* Hymn 211 (vs. 2) "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" VENI EMMANUEL

O come, thou Wisdom from on high, and order all things far and nigh; to us the path of knowledge show and cause us in her ways to go. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

* Prayer (unison)

God, on this second Sunday of Advent we seek to know you better. You entered our world and things changed. You have a way of disrupting things. Help us prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ, our Lord, the light of the world. Illuminate our waiting and watching, our praying, thinking and our acting with the light of the gospel so that we may produce the fruit of joy. O God, giver of inexplicable joy, speak to us today, and may we take the message of this season to a world filled with dark shadows. Through Christ we pray. Amen.

Morning Prayer The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
